How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pains were intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way."—Mrs. Thomson, 649 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I want to know whether a boy cares for a girl when she dirts around or acts quiet. I have tried both ways. In one way I act real nice, and why is it that a boy hardly ever asks for my company?

(2) Why is it that sometimes I see my boy friend and he speaks and laughs and talks to me, and other times he hardly speaks? I always act the same to him.

(3) Do you think it proper to walk the street on Saturday evening?

(4) How can I act to be very attractive to boys? Flirty or not?

(5) I am considered very good-looking. Do you think boys like girls because of their looks or actions?

(6) I am 14 and I am in the second year of high school. Am I too young to go with boys steady?

(7) How can I gain a boy's love? He does not seem to care much for me, but he winks at me and laughs.

(8) Why is it that when I am out boys whistle at me even when I am in a strange place?

WORRIED SUE.

(1) A boy certainly cares more for the girl who acts quiet. Unfortunately many men encourage girls to flirt and spoon for the momentary pleasure they get out of it, but instead of liking the girls they are disgusted with them. You are very young to have a boy ask you for your company, and besides you may have cheapened yourself so much by flirting that one would not care to give you more time than it would take for a few words when passing on the street.

(2) When men are with people whom they respect it is their custom to ignore or barely recognize flirts and cheap girls.

(3) No. It is a practice which stamps a girl as being common.

(4) He looks like, indifferent to boys and interesting. To be interesting you will have to be well-informed and capable of doing almost anything—dancing, playing tennis, cards and the piano. Talk will require a great deal of effort and study. The wise girl, her efforts on her work instead of boys.

Miss Carrie Ewald, 108 East Fourteenth street, Davenport, recent German and Austrian composers were studied. At the business session Mrs. Rose Oberholzer, Miss Ida Dittman and Mrs. L. E. spends her early teens in becoming educated and attractive. It pays in the end because it is the only way to become popular. A girl's popularity does not last, however, unless she is reserved and self-respecting; if she allows boys liberties they soon consider her as common as a flirty, less educated girl.

(5) Because of their personalities. A silly girl never has a pleasing personality.

(6) Yes.

(7) Be respectable. He wouldn't wink if he admired you.

(8) Girls' thoughts are reflected in their looks and in their actions, especially in their walk. If boys size them up as being cheap they whistle and try to get acquainted because of the pleasure which they think is in store for them.

My dear little girl, your letter shows in every word that you have begun life with the wrong attitude. Unless you find something of more interest than boys and flirtations a life of misery inevitably awaits you. You will be deprived of love, marriage, self-respect and the respect of others; in fact you will have none of the things that count for happiness.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please tell me how to take sulphur and molasses and how often it should be taken. Do you consider it a good remedy? RIPP.

Take one teaspoonful, half molasses and half sulphur, for three days and then skip three days. About nine doses will be sufficient to purify the blood. It is a good tonic.
